I called TB and he advised he went to his daughter's house, Chandra Brouelette, because her unwanted roommate Jeffrey Hardin took her cell phone. TB went over there to get his daughter's phone back for her. TB said Jeffrey "pulled a knife" on him. TB and his daughter left about an hour ago. I asked TB why he didn't call right away and he advised he wanted to get his dog home. I confirmed he was talking on his cell phone. TB said this is an ongoing situation and they just want Thomas to leave. I advised him that is what we want as well. It was very apparent TB just wanted Jeffrey arrested to get him to leave because he is sick of dealing with this. I asked TB what Jeffrey is going to say when I bring this topic up to him and TB advised that Jeffrey would probably say he was threatened. I asked him if he threatened him and he said no but did say he was upset and that's when Jeffrey pulled the knife out and held it down by his side. Jeffrey didn't verbally threaten TB but did have the knife out. I asked TB if he was scared of Jeffrey and he said no but the knife was concerning and he almost put hands on him. I advised TB he needs to keep Chandra at his home and hold her hand to file the OFP on Tuesday to ensure it gets taken care of. I advised I would go talk to Jeffrey and document what he has to say. I explained to TB he needs to see this through even though it's not his responsibility. He agreed to keep Chandra at his house and make sure the OFP gets filed. TB advised the OFP is completed just needs to be filed. I responded to the address and knocked on the door. No answer. I called and left Jeffrey a voicemail to call me. Howes #107 Location(s)  Address: 1647 Marsh Ave                      City: Maple Plain                      State: MN                      Zip:    Country: US Officer Assigned: Howes, Jonathan                      Badge No: 107                      Primary: Yes
